

The 29th & The 30th

AKS Summer Program for International Students

The Academy of Korean Studies (AKS) is pleased to announce the "29th & 30th AKS Summer Program for International Students." As an important part of our mission is to cultivate young leaders, who can contribute to the development of Korean studies, the academy has organized an intensive summer program for international undergraduate students in Korean studies. This program is composed of various components, such as special lectures on Korea, intensive Korean language course, field trips, excursions, and traditional cultural activities. Since its starting in 1993, we held the program for 28 times and around 786 students from 63 countries attended the program.

As number of applicants increases, the event has been held twice a year since 2019.

For those who are interested in the 29th or 30th AKS Summer Program for International Students, please read the notification carefully and apply for the program.
